Baron Greenback

A toad of very few morals . . .

Hugo Greenback is not an actual baron, but gave himself the title as it sounds impressive.

Much larger than most toads, the Baron lives in a house in the swamp not far from Beamfleet. He is a very dangerous beast. He has many minions and thugs who work for him. Greenback has never been proved to be responsible for violence or illegal activity, but he is behind most unpleasant things in the south of Anglia.
